

CITY OF JACKSON

PRESS RELEASE 7.17.23

The City of Jackson is pleased to announce the appointment of Jackson Police Chief Chris Mynderup as Interim City Manager, replacing outgoing City Manager Yvonne Kimball. Over the past couple weeks, the City Council conducted interviews for the interim position and found Chief Mynderup to be the best fit for the position. Chris Mynderup has committed 22 years of service to the City of Jackson Police Department, working his way up the ranks from Officer to Detective, Sergeant, Captain, and in 2019 reached his lifelong goal of becoming Police Chief. His steadfast trustworthiness and leadership of the Jackson Police Department have prepared him well for this demanding temporary new role, overseeing all city operations. Chief Mynderup's devotion and deep commitment to the continuity of city operations is a testament of his loyalty to the City of Jackson and the care of our residents. Chief Mynderup has honorably stepped up to lead the city through the recruitment period for our next permanent City Manager. Mayor Steve McLean stated, "Under Chris Mynderup's leadership, I believe he will deliver a superior level of confidence and calmness to city staff and the citizens of Jackson during this transitional period".
